• PROJECT

SeekGeek

www.seekgeek.app

Tinder like app for jobs that match employees and employer. The app provide an engaging way to help employers find their Geniuses. This could be engineers, developers, designers, and executives. I worked on setting up redux architecture, and JS animation for better user experience. This project was built using React, Redux for front-end, stripe for billing, mailgun for emailing canidates and Django for the back end services.
